

Open Letter To Biltmore's Who's Who People

Deborah A. Scott is honored by Biltmore Who's Who for professional excellence as Creator, Owner, and President of the new On-Line Store "A Little Bit of Rachel - The Unique Boutique", offering VINTAGE & RETRO one-of-a-kind clothing, jewelry, and accessories. A tribute to her mother and best friend, Rachel, who passed away from cancer at Mass General Hospital in 2005, the store shares vintage items from Rachel's personal fashion collection spanning half a century. "I'd like to think all the good things my mom represented lives on in the multitude and variety of treasures people find from mom's perfectly pristine time capsule fashion collection," Deborah shares.

"The Sky is Green and the Grass is Blue - turning your upside down world right side up" After graduating from Regis College, Weston, MA with a major in Biology (member Beta, Beta, Beta), Deborah established her successful 20 year career in the operating room medical sales arena as a Cardiac Surgery Sales Specialist. Ms. Scott won numerous professional honors and awards for consistent outstanding sales and leadership achievement. Deborah believes her success comes from "good, old-fashioned values of honesty, hard work, and genuine enthusiasm," Director of the Immaculate Conception 10th grade Confirmation program, Deborah hopes to become more involved in inspiring especially the youth to enjoy peace, purpose, and happiness.

Deborah is currently writing her first book, "The Sky is Green and the Grass is Blue - turning your upside down world right side up," published and available in bookstores near you in early 2009.

About Biltmore Who's Who:

Biltmore Who's Who specializes in providing members with pertinent biographical information of key Executives and Professionals that comprise its membership throughout North America. Biltmore Who's Who encourages all members to use the publication to contact and network with other members to enhance public relations or possibly develop mutual and beneficial business relationships.